During the past year only such repairs as were necessary have been made in the building, such as locks, doors and windows, and some new cordage, to replace the old, worn out, has been put on the scenery. The hall needs painting inside, and the stairways should be re-plastered or steel sheathed and painted. The complaint is still made that the stage is too small, and before the painting is done this should be enlarged. The expense need not be great and it would increase the income of the hall in rentals.

Report of Board of Health.

The town on the whole has been in a healthy condition during the past year. The only thing out of the ordinary occurring was the rather widespread outbreak of scarlet fever. During the year and up to the present time about 30 cases have been reported. It was of a mild type, which may account for the difficulty in completely stamping it out, as in all probability some extremely mild cases have occurred which were not attended by a physician. No case has been fatal. Only two cases of typhoid have been reported — one at Lebanon and one at West Lebanon.

Diphtheria, one at West Lebanon.

Small-pox, or Varioloid, two cases at West Lebanon.

Whooping Cough has been very prevalent. Probably there have been about 200 cases in the village of Lebanon and surrounding country. Many nuisances have been looked after and corrected, when possible. There are still some houses which ought to be connected with the sewer, though they are growing fewer each year.

The Board has met with an irreparable loss in the death of Dr. M. S. Woodman. He did his work energetically, and his willingness to give his time for the healthfulness of the town is worthy of praise. His business ability linked with his knowledge of sanitation, made him an invaluable member of the Board.

Cemetery Reports.

Report of Superintendent of Cemeteries.

Owing to the long drought, the cemeteries did not present as good an appearance as usual. A part of the fence in the Village Cemetery was painted. A new and longer water main was laid; a fence was built around the new addition to the cemetery at West Lebanon; a section of fence from a point near the tomb to the top of the hill in the Glenwood Cemetery was built. One of the buildings was painted and other improvements were made. There are but few unpaid bills, and there is more than enough to pay these that is due the cemeteries that can be collected later.
